

Key Vocabulary		Stephen Hawking
Unseen	Some people have disabilities or differences that cannot be seen.	- Stephen Hawking was a world-famous scientist
Autism	Autism is caused by differences in the brain. People with Autism can struggle interacting and communicating with others and prefer structure and repeated behaviours.	- He wrote many scientific books and wrote a famous book called 'The Theory of Everything'
ADHD	Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder affects people's behaviour. People can seem restless, may have trouble concentrating or may act on impulse.	- He developed Motor Neurone Disease, which affects the nervous system and causes muscles to be weaker
Tourette's Syndrome	A condition that causes someone to make involuntary sounds and make movement called tics.
Transgender	People who have chosen to change their gender.
Discrimination	To treat someone badly due to their differences.
Equality Act	This is an act of government that makes it illegal to discriminate against someone because of their disability, race or gender.
Hate Crime	A crime based on a prejudice against someone because of their differences.

Key Texts

